

MelodyWare Technologies Privacy Policy

Introduction

Welcome to MelodyWare Technologies. This privacy policy outlines how we handle information collected through our website. As we are currently in the development phase of our FitMirror project and seeking funding, this policy reflects our present practices, which may evolve as our business grows.

Information Collection

We do not actively collect personal information at this stage, except for names and email addresses provided voluntarily by users through our contact form on our website. This information is solely used to facilitate communication.

Use of Information

The limited information we collect is used exclusively to respond to inquiries or communications initiated by our users. We do not maintain a database of user information, nor do we track user activity on our website.

Data Sharing and Disclosure

MelodyWare Technologies does not share personal information with any third parties. All information collected is handled internally and confidentially.

Data Security

We prioritize the security of our users' information. Our website is protected with HTTPS to ensure the security of data transmission. Currently, we only collect names and email addresses, which are safeguarded with appropriate security measures.

User Rights

Users who have provided their contact information can request at any time that we discontinue communication. Since our website is primarily designed for informational purposes and interactions with potential investors and stakeholders, we do not send unsolicited communications. All interactions are manual and personalized.

Cookies and Tracking Technology

Our website currently does not use cookies. Should we decide to use basic cookie technology in the future, it will be to enhance user experience on the site. Any significant changes to this practice will be reflected in an updated version of this policy.

Policy Updates

As MelodyWare Technologies evolves, this privacy policy may be updated to reflect new practices and technologies. Any significant changes to our privacy practices will be communicated directly to stakeholders involved and noted on our website.

Contact Information

For any questions or concerns regarding your privacy, please contact us via our website's contact form. Inquiries are directly forwarded to our company's management for prompt attention.

Privacy Policy Revised: April 14, 2024.
